THE ELEVENTH HOUR by Graeme Base

Horace the eleventh decides to give himself a big treat for his eleventh birthday. He invites all his friends to a feast but he doesn't know that the feast will be gone by 11 o'clock.

We will try to help Horace solve the crime and find out who stole the feast.

List the party games they played:
Who do you think the thief was?
Give a good reason for your suspicion.
Then use your code breaker to decode the secret message. Start with the letter
Who was the thief?
When you are finished, you can write a secret message and give it to a friend to decode using the decoder. You can give them a clue about your Roman Cypher.
